Patrolman Carl J. Janz, Jr

Mentor Police Department

Patrolman Carl Janz was the first officer from the City of Mentor to receive the Lake County Blue Coats Outstanding Service Award. He was honored at a banquet held at the Mentor Harbor Yachting Club in Mentor on the Lake, on December 2, 1970. Dr. Lloyd Rogler, Professor of Sociology, was the guest speaker at the dinner.

Janz was honored for his work in combating local narcotics problems. He was also very involved with the young people of the City of Mentor, lecturing school children on child molesters, bicycle play, and school bus safety.

Janz was later to serve as a Detective and Juvenile Officer with the City of Mentor. After his retirement from Mentor, he joined the Waite Hill Police Department. Carl passed away in May, 2016.
